

Francis Williams

Last

Will & Testament

Admitted to Probate

27th Octr 1868

State of North Carolina } In the Probate
Duplin County - } Court

Personally appeared before the undersigned Probate Judge of said County, Charles J. Williams one of the Executors of Francis Williams deceased (Walter Williams the other Executor having renounced his office of Executor) & made oath in due form of law 1st That he is one of the Executors named in the last will of Francis Williams deceased.

2^d That the personal property of said deceased is worth about Four hundred dollars, & the land is worth about thirteen hundred dollars

3^d The following persons are mentioned as legatees in said Will, viz. Chas^r J. Williams, Rosa P. Willie, Eliza Williams, Pamela Williams, Sarah Williams & Emily Cox of Duplin County, and Mary J.

Straughen of Sampson County who is now dead leaving her surviving the following children viz. Buck Straughen, Walter Straughen, James Straughen, Ann Straughen, Eliza Straughen, & Rosa Straughen a minor all of Sampson County, her brother Buck Straughen managing her business

Sworn to & subscribed before me this Oct 27th a D 1868

J. D. Foushildand
Probate Judge
Duplin County

C. J. Williams