Generation No. 1

1. William Murray Gibson, born 04 March 1836 in nr Gibson Station, Richmond, NC; died 10 June 1925 in Raeford, Hoke, NC, Quewhiffle Twp.. He was the son of 2. John K. Gibson and 3. Elizabeth Watson. He married (1) Rebecca Brown Bet. 1859 - 1860. She was born Abt. 1832, and died 11 September 1904 in Scotland, NC. She was the daughter of Hugh Brown and Sarah Williamson. He married (2) Mary Jane Brown 12 June 1902. She was born 16 May 1878, and died 01 December 1962 in Raeford, Hoke, NC, Quewhiffle Twp.. She was the daughter of Neil Archibald Brown and Cynthia Ann Medlin.

Notes for William Murray Gibson:

Blanche Gibson Hamer's 1950 Book, "GENEALOGICAL RECORD OF THOMAS GIBSON -- AND INTER-RELATED FAMILIES" lists "Murray K." as a son of John K. Gibson and Elizabeth Watson. It is felt that "Murray K." either changed his name or the informant of this information was incorrect. In either case it is strongly felt that he is the William Murray Gibson who is the father of Annie Laura Gibson (Adams). Further research will be done to document the actual facts, including the surname of Annie Laura's mother. [SEE BELOW FOR FURTHER RESEARCH, DOCUMENTATION AND CONCLUSIONS]

NAME: p. 89 "Pate-Adams-Newton and Allied Families" compiled by Julia Claire Pate (1958) located in the genealogy collection of the Scotland County Library, Laurinburg NC

1850 CENSUS: William, age 14, found in 1850 Census of Richmond County, North Carolina in the family of John K. Gibson and wife Margaret.

BIRTH: granddaughter by second marriage; 1850 Census, Richmond County, North Carolina. This granddaughter, Ann Pate (Thompson) was aware that her grandfather, William Murray Gibson, had a first family and one of his daughters, Annie Laura, had a daughter who married a Newton man. (AGT Note: this would be my grandmother, Blanche Bright Adams who married James Preston Newton).

1860 CENSUS: William, Rebecca and first child, Elizabeth, found in 1860 Census of Richmond County, North Carolina.

DEEDS: Quit Claims - Richmond County (these documents were among papers of Blanche Adams (Newton) granddaughter of William Murray and Rebecca Brown Gibson. This researcher - Anne G. Tindall - has not looked up specific location in public records.):

*Land of C.C.Gibson, deceased, signed May 9, 1881; filed and recorded November 30, 1881 (Christopher C. Gibson brother of W.M. and administrator was W. P. Gibson - William P. Gibson married Mary, sister of W.M.Gibson)

*Land of Hugh Brown, deceased, signed November 24, 1885; filed and recorded November 28, 1885. (Administrator was W. P. Gibson; clues point to Hugh Brown being father of W. M. Gibson's wife, Rebecca.)

MORTGAGE REAL ESTATE - Marlboro County, South Carolina January 18, 1888 from Annie L. Adams to Wm. Murray Gibson (land given her by her husband, Shockley P. Adams)

MILITARY: CIVIL WAR: From page 140 of "NORTH CAROLINA TROOPS: 1861-1865" Section: "INFANTRY, CO. B 33RD REGIMENT: GIBSON, WILLIAM M., Private Resided in Richmond County and enlisted in Wake County at age 26, July 1 1862, for the war. Present or accounted for until captured at or near Chancellorsville, Virginia, May 3, 1863. Sent to Washington, D.C. Paroled and transferred to City Point, Virginia, where he was received on May 13, 1863, for exchange. Returned to duty prior to September 1, 1863. Present or accounted for until captured near Petersburg, Virginia, April 2, 1865. Confined at Point Lookout, Maryland. Released on June 26, 1865, after taking the Oath of Allegiance.

A deed, recorded November 24 1886 by A. L. McDonald, Register of Deeds, conveying land from F. B. Gibson and wife E. T. Gibson and State of North Carolina to Trustees of the Gibson Station High School names the trustees as Thomas M. Adams and Raiford Gibson of Marlboro County, South Carolina and F. B. Gibson, Henry D. Gibson and William Murray Gibson of Richmond County North Carolina.

In April 1896 documents indicate some intriguing events took place. (1) Rebecca Gibson quit claims land previously deeded to her by her husband W. M. Gibson and quit claims "unto my husband, W. M. Gibson his heirs and assigns forever all the dower and....rights and title of dower and...and all other rights, title interest property.....to his own proper use" dated April 25 1896 (Rebecca made her mark; witnesses J. A. McNeill and S. P. Adams) On the same day, April 25 1896 W. M. Gibson "for and in consideration of the release of the entire dower interest my wife Rebecca has or may have in my estate.....I do hereby give grant bargain sell and convey unto my wife Rebecca Gibson during her natural life all that certain tract of land in said Richmond County on the Rockingham Road one mile East of Gibson Station The Homestead on which we now live (...description of land) with all the privileges and appurtenances thereto belonging or in any wise appertaining to have and to hold the hereby released premises to the said Rebecca Gibson my wife during her natural life and I, the said W. M. Gibson for my self my heirs executors and assigns to covenant with the said Rebecca Gibson that the premises are free from all encumbrances made of suffered by me.....and this deed is made upon express condition -- that my wife Rebeca release me of all obligation of maintenance and support herself and our daughter Sallie P. Gibson - that this tract is not subject to sale or mortgage that it will come back to me W. M. Gibson at the dec(death) of my wife Rebecca that Sallie P. Gibson shall be maintained.....is made on these premises during her single life. That at the decd of Father & Mother of the Family it shall then belong to our lawful children equally divided among them. That I W. M. Gibson in making this conveyance to my wife Rebecca am by agreement released from all obligation of Protection, Maintenance and support of any nature whatsoever. SIGNED AND DELIVERED IN PRESENCE OF J. A. McNeill and S. P. Adams. Filed and recorded May 6 1896 Register of Deeds Richmond Co. NC Rebecca died Sept 11 1904. Her gravestone indicates she was "about 72 yrs. old and was the "wife of W. M. Gibson".

William Murray Gibson, age 66, married Mary Jane Brown, age 24, on June 12 1902. William Murray Gibson was 73 years old when he and Mary Jane had their last child, Daniel James, on July 7 1909.

1925 WILL: Will Book 1, pp 366-368; Hoke County NC Clerk of Court; written May 11, 1912; Proved August 28, 1925 William Murray Gibson's will leaves all to "my beloved wife Mary Jane Gibson, in lieu of her dower.....to her only use....until 21 years shall have elapsed after the birth of the last child begotten by me of my said wife.....then to children begotten by me of my said wife.....I have heretofore given the children of my first wife .....all that I wish to give them.....appoint my friend Z. V. Pate my lawful executor...." Witness: W. I. Crup; Jno. W. Moore

Notes for Rebecca Brown:

At this point, April 1993, educated guess is the only source. We do know that William Murraray Gibson's wife's name was Rebecca through his many land purchasing transactions. What we have not found is Rebecca's Surname. However, the speculations of Anne Gibson (Tindall) are based on finding a gravestone of "REBECCA, WIFE OF W.M. GIBSON" death date September 11 1904, about 72 years old in the cemetery behind St. John United Methodist Church, Highway 79, near Gibson, Scotland County, North Carolina. Also, in the 1850 Census of Richmond County (when Rebecca would have been 17 or 18 depending on month of her birthday) there are five 17, 18, 19 year old girls named Rebecca. There is a Rebecca in each of the following families: John White, Daniel Smith, Hugh Brown, James Hasty and George Wright. I have concluded at this point and am seeking further documentation, that W. M. Gibson's wife Rebecca was Rebecca Brown of the Hugh Brown family. My reasoning is because several of the gravestones in the St. John Cemetery are Brown names and three are the names of what would be Rebecca's siblings in the Hugh Brown family -- Nelson, Stephen and Dicey. In addition, among the papers found following the death of Blanche Adams (Newton) who was a granddaughter of William Murraray Gibson was a copy of a Quit Claim Deed to W. M. Gibson from W. P. Gibson (brother-in-law of W. M.) and Administrator of the estate of HUGH BROWN (filed and recorded November 28, 1885 by Richmond County Register of Deeds A. L. McDonald.) showing W. M. Gibson's purchase of the estate of the lands of Hugh Brown, deceased.

Mae-Allen Form of Albuquerque NM is a direct descendant of Hugh Brown and lists Rebecca as one of his children who married Murray Gibson.

Death certificate of Annie Laura GIBSON (Adams), daughter of William Murray Gibson and Rebecca, indicates that Rebecca's Surname was BROWN and her place of birth was North Carolina, with that information supplied by Annie Laura's son, Tom C. Adams. (Copy of Death Certificate in possession of Anne Gibson (Tindall) great-granddaughter of Annie Laura.

- 8 iii. Nathan Gibson, born Abt. 1777; died in Richmond, NC.
- iv. Luke Gibson, born Abt. 1778; died Bef. August 1854; married (1) Miss Pittman; married (2) Elizabeth Jane Terry.

Notes for Luke Gibson:

Luke married twice. At this date, 3/19/93, I am not sure which children were by which wife. I am entering them all under Eliza Terry only because the researcher's notes I'm using did not know the full name of Miss Pittman.(agt)

See also a CODICIL AUGUST 8 1864 which indicated Thomas T. Covington had died & therefore changed some terms of will." above pertains to Nancy's husband, Samuel Gibson.

!from Farmer Report (above) "Nancy: Listed in Family bible of Champ & Joanna Terry. Her death date estimated since spouse (Samuel Gibson) is listed on 1850 Census with different wife)

!NOTES OF AGT (compiler of this family history): Need to double check info from Farmer Report above concerning Nancy Terry Gibson. "1850 Census (Index) of Richmond County North Carolina" compiled by Glenn H. McGugan, Southern Pines, NC lists two SAMUEL GIBSONS. One on page 10 whose age is shown as 41 (which would be too young for Nancy's husband if born about 1781); the second Samuel would be more likely Nancy's husband, IF birth date estimated and not proven. This Samuel's age is 57 and living in the same household is DANIEL MCDONALD (AGE 26) and NANCY GIBSON (age 53) which would be correct for this Nancy is born in Sept. 1796 (Census taken prior to Sept.)

(Some interesting facts of this couple and their descendants as given by a Gr-Gr-Daughter, Mrs. J. A. Paigelow, California, Mo.):

"John McKenzie was born in Scotland about 1779, and came with his parents to America, when quite young, and settled in North Carolina., along with other Scotchmen who had come to America after the battle of Culloden in 1749. John grew to manhood and enlisted and served in the War of 1812. His wife, Agnes Gibson, lived near Rockingham, N. C., and also was of Scotch descent, and the daughter of Nelson Gibson and his wife, Sarah Williams. John and Agnes McKenzie were married in Buncombe County N.C. and moved to Kentucky in 1815; few of their children were born there, and in 1820, moved to Boon County, Mo., in 1829 went to Cole County, Mo., and there, built a large stone house--and here, they lived and died. John died 1871 and Agnes, in 1869"
