Notes for GEORGE WRIGHT:

On Jan. 17, 1827, George Wright, 8, was apprenticed to Col. Harrington. There is no mention what became of George's mother. George Wright appears to have remained on the Harrington plantation afterwards, is often mentioned in the colonel's journals as being there. At some point after George Wright reached manhood, he experienced health problems and his father, Col. Harrington, sent him to Tennessee for his health and to see after Harrington land holdings there. George is said to have died in Greene Co., TN, exact location and location of grave not known. Some family sources said George was not married. However, it should be considered for additional research that George Wright may have been married based upon the following: Ref. 185B. 03/67 Greene Co., TN Will: In Green Co., TN the June 6, 1848 will of a William Jones Sr. was recorded. In that will, William Jones Sr. records that his deceased daughter, Nancy, was married to a George Wright. Nancy and George had two children: William Wright & Martha Jane Wright. There is no documentation William Jones was from the Richmond Co. area, but it is believed some of the Jones family from Richmond Co. moved into TN. There is a known relationship between the Richmond Co. Jones and Wright families. This is speculation but it may be possible that the George Wright referred to above may have been George, the illegitimate son of Col. Harrington..).

Answer to a query to Hinds County, MS - They are all buried at Reeves Chapel Cemetery (now Hinds Independent Methodist Church) on the Old Port Gibson Road, the original Natchez Trace. This is located SE of Raymond, and NW of Learned, if you look at a Hinds County/Mississippi map . The Wright antebellum home is still standing off the Old Port Gibson Road and still in use by the Wright family. It is a real showplace, but not open for pilgrimages, etc. My father's sister married Romuel Wright, a descendent of the family, and they lived in Crystal Springs , MS in Copiah County. There was a huge family, and all the children had huge families. Uncle Romuel have a number of brothers and sisters. I am sure you already know a lot of that. Uncle Romuel and Aunt Eleanor had 4 children, Eleanor Lacy (m. Sam Buckmaster and lives in Altanta), Gregory, Nicholas, and Romuel. Nick and Romuel live in Dallas, and Greg on the Keys in Florida.

The unit was first stationed on Sullivan's Island and called by the other troops "The Pound Cake Regiment" because of its light duty. Then in April, 1862, it moved to Virginia with 1,000 men. Assigned to General Gregg's and McGowan's Brigade, it fought with the army from the Seven Days' Battles to Cold Harbor. Later the regiment endured the hardships of the Petersburg trenches and the Appomattox operations. Of the 537 engaged at Gaines' Mill, fifty-nine percent were killed, wounded or missing. The unit reported 116 casualties at Second Manassas and 170 at Fredericksburg, then lost forty-nine percent of the 233 at Chancellorsville and three percent of the 366 at Gettysburg. There were 12 killed and 81 wounded at The Wilderness, 15 killed, 36 wounded, and 44 missing at Spotsylvania 3 killed and 34 wounded at Deep Bottom, and 9 killed and 37 wounded at Poplar Springs Church. It surrendered 9 officers and 148 men. The field officers were Colonels Daniel A. Ledbetter, James W. Livingston, J. Foster Marshall, George M. Miller, James L. Orr, and James M. Perrin; Lieutenant Colonels William M. Hadden, F.E. Harrison, Joseph J. Norton, and James T. Robertson; and Majors John B. Moore and Leonard Rogers.

Proved in Scotland County Superior Court 17th day of April, 1923.

G. Watt Wright - On Saturday, April 14, many hearts were sad in Gibson and the surrounding country, for "Mr. Watt" had passed away. No one has ever gone from this community who was missed more. We miss him in our homes, on the street, in his place of business, in the Sunday school, and most of all we miss his beautiful tenor voice in the choir at the church he loved.

During all the weeks of his declining health his home had been the mecca of the children and also his older friends. He used to say, "Give me my flowers while I can enjoy them," and he surely had his wish granted for we never saw his room bare of flowers at any time during his illness. So often during his last weeks we heard him say, "I don't know why the people are so good to me," but we knew why. We doubt there is a home in Gibson into which Mr. Watt had not gone with help and cheer in times of sickness and trouble.

No one can ever take his place in the hearts of the children, for none of them knew him, but to love. He was never too busy to go with them swimming or blackberrying, or to chaperone their picnics and other little outings; and no mother need be uneasy about her child when it was with Mr. Watt. His good influence will live on in the hearts of the children he loved and who loved him.

George Washington Wright, or as he, was better known, Watt Wright, was born May 1, 1858. He was the son of George and Miranda Wright and the third of four children, two of whom were his, a sister, Mrs. Francis Wright, and a brother, Mr. W. T. Wright. In early life he was converted and became a member of St. Johns church, but later moved to Gibson Methodist church, as the last 30 years of his life were spent there. He was a consistent Christian and a faithful friend to those in need.

January 22 he suffered a slight stroke of paralysis and from that time his condition gradually became worse. At the beginning of his illness he was removed to the home of his brother, where everything possible was done for his comfort and pleasure. Up to the time that he was stricken he was as spry as a boy of 18. He was confined to his bed less than a week. During all his illness, even though suffering intensely, no complaint passed his lips, and he was cheerful and his own jolly self as long as he was conscious. As long as he could speak he thanked every one for anything they did for him.

On Sunday afternoon he was tently laid to rest in the family burying ground in the presence of hundreds of sorrowing friends. His pastor, Rev. A. J. Parker, spoke tenderly of the beautiful life he had lived among us, and the choir of which he had been a member sang several selections. The children with tearful voices and streaming eyes sang one of the songs they had so often sung with him. The boys of the G. Watt Wright Sunday school class covered his grave with the beautiful floral tributes of his friends.

We miss you so, Mr. Watt, but we know that we can go to you in that home where pain, sickness, sorrow and old age, can never come.

One who loved him.

The Laurinburg Exchange - September 27, 1923 - Memorial Service For Late G. Watt Wright At Gibson Under Auspices of Gibson Young People's Missionary Society Sunday - The Gibson Methodist church was the scene of one of the most impressive occasions of its history Sunday morning when a memorial service was held under the auspices of the Gibson Young People's Missionary Society in memory of the late Mr. G. Watt Wright, who was one of the most beloved and most highly honored citizens of this community.

The Service was opened with the song, "River of Life," rendered by the choir which was one of his favorite pieces. Following the opening anthem were a number of addresses. Mr. Jack Gibson who spoke for the young people presented very ably his many virtues and his worth to the community by having lived in it. Mr. Willie Gibson and Mr. L. T. Gibson spoke for the Sunday school and Bible class respectively. Next in the program was a solo, "Abide With Me," by Miss Mildred Gibson. Following this number Mr. N. T. Fletcher, Jr., spoke for the Juniors and little Miss Mildred Lytch for the children, after which was a duet, "My Lov'd One Rest," which was very beautifully rendered by Misses Mildred Gibson and Belle Caulk. The concluding number was an address by the Hon. L. M. Blue, who presented in a very touching manner the value of a Christian life. He spoke at length of his Christian character, his devotion to duty and his love for his fellow man. The congregation was dismissed with prayer led by Mr. Blue.

Wright, C. A. Wright, L. P. Wright, Marvin Gibson, Ed Currie and D. W. Gibson.

The funeral service was a simple one, the minister offered a most beautiful and touching prayer, dwelling upon the character and nobility of soul of the deceased and asking divine comfort for the bereaved family.

Miss Wright's age was 56 years and 24 days. She was well known in her community and was greatly loved by those who knew her. For 45 years she had been a member of St. Johns Methodist church. She was a loyal consistent Christian, and an active church worker, be particularly interested in the foreign mission enterprise of her church. She was active in the woman's organizations and a leader.

Capt. Jas. M. Wright Crosses Great Divide - At Ripe Age of 81 years Veteran Soldier and Citizen Sets Out on the Great Adventure - Capt. James M. Wright, soldier, citizen and Christian gentleman, following an illness of several weeks and a decline in health of more than a year, set out for the Great Adventure on Friday, December 26, the end of a life that was full and rich coming with the Christmastide, with friends and loved ones about him anxiously ministering to every need and want. His death was not unexpected, as his advanced age and gradual decline in health and strength had made it known to those about him that the end would soon come. He met it bravely, confidently and beautifully, putting out to sea with the same courageous spirit that characterized his life during its long tenure on earth. When it was learned that he had passed away there was profound sorrow on every hand, for he was a very popular man, well liked and widely known throughout the county and this part of the state, held high in the esteem of those who knew him and numbering his friends by the hundreds.

Saturday afternoon at the McNeill grave yard, in the presence of a great gathering of friends and relatives, an impressive funeral service was held, Dr. F. O. Hellier, his pastor, officiating and using the text, "A Good Soldier of Jesus Christ," and paying a most beautiful tribute to the man whose life had counted for so much during the years he had been permitted to live and serve in his community, his church and state. Many beautiful floral offerings added their contribution of love and appreciation to the scene. And the remains were laid to rest against the day when the just shall live again. The pall bearers were his younger friends, Messrs. Tom Currie, Jim Jackson, Joe Arch McMillan, Edgar Gibson and Bob Monroe.

Capt. Wright was a gentleman of the old school, a man of superior intelligence, possessing to an eminent degree those sterling qualities of heart and soul which go to make the real man. His moral uprightness, his uncompromising righteousness, unassailable example, staunch manhood and Christian spirit excited in those about him a profound and genuine respect for the man and for the exemplary life which he lived. He was one of those men who are always moving to higher ground and whose eyes are able to visualize the heights ahead; and his example was uplifting and benevolent. A man said after he was gone, "There are few left like Capt. Wright."

He was meticulously conscientious and loyal and faithful in every relation of life. A noble father, whose life was a benediction to his children, a good husband and a splendid citizen. He had the enmity of no man and his heart was big enough to see good in all.

Capt. Jas. M. Wright was born January 8, 1839, and died December 26, 1919, nearly 81 years of age. He was twice married. First to Miss Ellen Christian of Montgomery County, who died, leaving three children who still survive. They are Mrs. J. C. Birmingham of Laurinburg, Miss Fannie Wright of Washington, D.C., and Mr. Joe Wright of Atlanta. In 1887 he was married to Miss Margaret McMillan of Scotland County, who was spared to minister to him during his last illness. Soon after his second marriage he moved to Scotland County from Norwood, and for 30 years has been one of the leading and loyal citizens of the county.

During the War between the States he was among the first to volunteer and fought through the 4 years of the conflict, receiving only a slight wound. At the close of the war he came home and set to work to rebuild that which had been laid waste by war and famine. He was a man of bright intellect, gifted with his pen, and filled many positions of importance and trust. He was for a number of years secretary and treasurer of the Farmers Insurance Association of Richmond and Scotland counties and gave up this work only a year or two ago, when failing health forced him to leave it off. He used to visit Laurinburg quite often and was well and favorably known here. In June, 1918, he suffered a stroke of paralysis and from that time his health declined. He was still able, however, to come to Laurinburg and pay an occasional visit to friends. He was a faithful member of Laurel Hill Presbyterian church and always attended the services when it was possible to do so. At one time he lived in Charlotte and was engaged in business there for a number of years before coming to this county, and was well and favorably known in the Queen City.

Notes for MARY FRANCES PEARSON:

Mrs. M. M. Wright, age 45 years, of the Wrights Bridge section was found dead in bed early Friday morning, August 19, by her children when they were awakened by the crying of their 3 months old baby brothers. She had gone to bed in good health so far as her family knew and she had made no complaint.

Before marriage, Mrs. Wright was Miss Mollie Pearson, daughter of Henry Pearson and Fannie Pearson of this county. She joined the Tabernacle church early in life.

Funeral and burial services were held Friday afternoon at 5:30 at the Peele cemetery, near her old home. Rev. H. C. Ewing, assisted by Rev. Bryant Loving, officiating. The grave was banked with a profusion of beautiful flowers.

Mrs. Wright was a devoted wife and mother and was greatly loved by those who knew her. There are surviving a husband, seven children, four sisters and nine brothers. They have the heartfelt sympathy of their many friends in their great sorrow.

- ii. EMERSON WRIGHT^{90,91}, b. November 14, 1884, Richmond County, NC; d. January 06, 1916, Hamlet, Richmond, NC.

Notes for EMERSON WRIGHT:

Scotland Citizen Murdered In Marlboro - Mr. Emerson Wright Shot To Death by Laud Quick--Shooting occurred at Boykin Church. - Early Monday night of last week, Emerson Wright, aged 28 years, a citizen of the Gibson section of the county, was shot and so seriously wounded that he died two days later in the Hamlet Hospital without regaining consciousness. The shooting occurred about 9 o'clock close to Boykin church, just over the State line, and about two miles from Gibson. According to the information available, Mr. Wright and his brother, Mr. Manly Wright, were returning from Bennettsville where they had been during the day attending the usual trade day held in that town the first Monday in each month. At Boykin church they met three men, Messrs. Laud and Eb Quick and Frank Stanton, all Marlboro people. The place of meeting was a close one in the road, and in passing, the Wright brothers, necessarily passed close to the other parties. As the teams were passing, Laud Quick, it is said, cursed Smith and said: "you had better drive over us," to which Emerson Smith replied "you needn't talk so big about it." At this time, Quick caught hold of Smith and pulled him out of his buggy and knocked him down. Smith, as soon as he could get up, returned to his buggy and started driving off. About this time three pistol shots rang out. Two of them missed their mark, the third entering the back of Emerson Smith's head.

Dr. E. A. Livingston was hurriedly called from Gibson and at once realizing the seriousness of the wound hurried the wounded man to Hamlet, where he was placed in the Hamlet Hospital for treatment. The wound was of such a serious nature that no operation was performed. Mr. Wright died Wednesday night without regaining consciousness. The body was brought to the family home near Gibson, Thursday morning and buried in the family burying ground.

Mr. Wright, who was a son of Mr. Jim Wright, was it is said, a young man of peaceful and quiet disposition, and the sad ending of his young life has brought much sorrow to many hearts in the county. It is reported that two of the parties who are thought to be responsible for his death, have been placed under arrest.

Another Account of the Tragedy - Gibson, Jan. 7, Emerson Wright, of this place, died yesterday following a wound received Monday night when he was fired on while returning home from Bennettsville. Officers are searching for Laud Quick, who, it is charged, did the shooting. Mr. Wright went to Bennettsville Monday and was returning home Monday night. About eight o'clock two miles west of Gibson, he drove up near a buggy and told the parties that he was in a hurry to get home and would drive by them. Some one in the other buggy told him that he would kill the first one who attempted to drive by him. Mr. Wright, of course thought he was only joking with him and kept on driving. Just as he got in front of the buggy some one fired four times, the last ball hitting Mr. Wright in the back of the neck. He was hurried to the Hamlet Hospital, at which place he died yesterday morning at 12:30 o'clock. His remains were brought to Gibson on Yesterday morning's train and were buried this morning at the Wright cemetery near his home. Mr. Wright was from one of the best families in this section and his bereaved ones have many friends who sympathize with them in their sorrow.

The Laurinburg Exchange - June 3, 1926 - Mr. Wright Loses Four Good Hams - Mr. W. T. Wright, of near Gibson, was a visitor in Laurinburg Tuesday and told how thieves had stolen from his smoke house on Tuesday night, May 25, four fine hams that would weigh probably 25 pounds each. Thus far Mr. Wright has not been able to find the stolen meat or the thieves who took it. He was able to make out the barefoot tracks of three men, who came to his smoke house and returned across the field in the same direction. "We never keep anything locked," said Mr. Wright, "We just leave smoke house, crib, barn and the house unlocked day and night, and this is the first time I ever knew anybody to steal anything from me. Sometimes I have thought my corn was going pretty fast, but I couldn't tell for sure." Mr. Wright goes on to say that there was side meat and other cured meat in his smoke house, and that he has plenty of meat left for his own needs, but even at that he does not like to have his good hams stolen. And he thinks he will be able to locate the thieves yet.

Robert L. Griffin and Miss Blanche Wright Wed - Car Was Smashed by Train While Enroute to Preacher's Home - Miss Blanche Wright, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Wright, and Robert L. Griffin, well known young people of the county, were married on Saturday evening, February 2, at the Methodist parsonage in Gibson, the Rev. A. J. Parker officiating. Only a few friends and kinspeople witnessed the ceremony.

Mr. Griffin and Miss Wright had a narrow escape from death just before reaching the preacher's home in Gibson. Mr. Griffin was driving his Ford coupe and while crossing the railroad on Main street in Gibson, a freight car backed into the car and crushed the front wheels and engine. Neither Mr. Griffin nor Miss Wright were injured. They promptly extricated themselves from the car and proceeded to the preacher's home for the marriage. It is said that had their car been two feet farther across the tracks the freight car would have smashed it entirely and probably would have cost them their lives.

Mr. Floyd Wright Killed By Lightning - Heavy Stroke Hits Oak Tree in Yard as Mr. Wright Was Going into House - Mr. Floyd Wright, son of Mr. C. W. Mr. Wright and two colored men, it is related, were in the yard at his home and seeing the cloud and rain approaching, Mr. Wright remarked to the colored men that he was going into the house. He started for the house and walked near a large oak in the yard. As he did a heavy stroke of lightning hit the oak and killed Mr. Wright. His clothes and shoes were literally torn from his body by the terrific stroke. The large oak was felled and a heavy piece of timber torn from its side and hurled into the yard. One of Mr. Wright's shoes was thrown some distance from his body and torn to shreds almost. The two colored men, who made for the barn about the time Mr. Wright started into the house, were found in the barn in a badly shocked condition, and one of them has a severe burn on the arm. They did not know how they got to the barn, and one of them, it is told, says he thought he was in Germany. Mr. Wright was buried Thursday, the funeral being held at the home at 11 a.m., Rev. J. E. Underwood, conducted the service. He was about 32 years old and leaves a wife.

The Laurinburg Exchange - May 18, 1919 - Mr. Wright Gets Good Price For Cotton

Mr. D. O. Wright of Gibson, route 1, is a successful farmer and grows some long staple cotton every year. First day of last week Mr. Wright sold 7 bales of this variety at Cheraw, SC, realizing the handsome sum of $1,076.72 for the lot. The price received ranged from 29 to 36 cents a pound, depending upon the grade and length of the staple of the cotton. Mr. Wright says he likes the long staple varieties and finds them no harder to grow than other kinds of cotton. The price is always better than that offered for the short staple cotton and if one takes advantage of the market, can get good returns from his crop every year.

RAEFORD - Mrs. Aline McPhaul Wright of 308 W. Central Ave. in Raeford died Thursday, Feb. 9, 2006, at FirstHealth Moore Regional Hospital in Pinehurst at the age of 88. Mrs. Wright was born in the Antioch community to the late Fletcher Franklin and Mary Thrower McPhaul. She attended Flora MacDonald College until her marriage. Mrs. Wright owned and operated Raeford Super Market for many years. A lifelong Presbyterian, she was a member of Bethel Church from the time of her marriage. She was honored with a lifetime membership in the Women of the Church where she served as an Elder and Clerk of the Session, Sunday-school teacher, Circle chairman and Bible moderator. Mrs. Wright frequently provided floral altar arrangements, which she made from her own garden. As long as her health permitted, Mrs. Wright was a mainstay in the planning, preparing, serving, and cleaning up for Bethel's traditional in-gathering on the first Thursday of each November - one of the commitments she has passed on to her children. She was a member of Raeford Garden Club and the local chapter of the United Daughters of the Confederacy. Her favorite roles were wife, mother, aunt, neighbor and "Me-Me" to her grandchildren. 47. MARTHA LILY⁴ WRIGHT (*JAMES MACON*³, *GEORGE*², *GEORGE*¹)²⁰⁰ was born March 12, 1870 in Montgomery County, NC, and died March 20, 1923 in Laurinburg, Scotland, NC. She married JOHN CALHOUN BIRMINGHAM September 27, 1893²⁰¹. He was born September 18, 1853, and died November 30, 1921.

Notes for MARTHA LILY WRIGHT:

Mrs. Lily Wright Birmingham Is Claimed By Death - Died Almost Suddenly Tuesday Night of Heart Failure, Funeral Thursday at 10:30 A.M - Mrs. Lily Wright Birmingham, widow of the late J . C. Birmingham, died Tuesday night at her home on Gill street, the end coming almost suddenly and following an attack of acute heart trouble. Mrs. Birmingham was one of Laurinburg's noblest and finest women and the community was scarcely prepared for the shock occasioned by her death. She was a quite, sincere Christian woman, whose chief interest were those of her home and those dear to her.

Funeral services were conducted Thursday morning at 10:30 at the home, Rev. Carl B. Craig, of the Presbyterian church, officiating. The interment was in the Laurinburg cemetery. The grave was banked with a great profusion of beautiful flowers, eloquently testifying to the esteem in which she was held by many dear friends.

Mrs. Birmingham was born March 12, 1870, in Montgomery county and was a daughter of the late Capt. J. M. Wright. The family later moved to this county, where they lived for many years.

She was married to the late J. C. Birmingham, who died in 1921, and there are surviving two daughters, Mrs. Lauch D. McKinnon and Miss Mary Taylor Birmingham, of Laurinburg; one step-daughter, Mrs. E. N. Gibson, of Gibson; three step-sons Messrs. R. C. Birmingham, of Charlotte; C. C. Birmingham, of Wilmington, and J. H. Birmingham, of Hamlet. One sister, Miss Fannie Wright, of Washington, D.C., and one brother, J. W. Wright, of Atlanta.

The Laurinburg Exchange - March 29, 1923 - On Tuesday night, March 20, at her home on Gill street, the spirit of Mrs. Lillie Wright Birmingham peacefully passed into its final reward. On Tuesday morning, March 22, the funeral service conducted by her pastor; Rev. Carl B. Craig, was held at her late residence. After this service, the body under a profusion of beautiful flowers, was laid to rest in the city cemetery.

Mrs. Birmingham, the subject of this sketch, was a daughter of the late Capt. J. M. Wright, and was born March 12, 1871, in Montgomery county. The family later moved to this county where the greater portion of her life was spent.

On September 27, 1893, she was married to the late J. C. Birmingham, who died in 1921. There are surviving two daughters, Mrs. Lauch D. McKinnon, and Miss May Taylor Birmingham, of Laurinburg; one stepdaughter, Mrs. E. N. Gibson, of Gibson; three step-sons, Messrs. R. C. Birmingham, of Charlotte; C. C. Birmingham, of Wilmington, and J. S. Birmingham, of Hamlet; one sister, Miss Fannie Wright, of Washington, and one brother, J. C. Wright of Atlanta.

Early in life Mrs. Birmingham joined the Presbyterian church, of which she was a faithful and consistent member - ever anxious and willing to serve her church and promote its growth in every way. Bright of intellect, genial of disposition and cheerful manner, she left an impress for good on those about her. In her were combined traits that made her a strong Christian character. It was in her home and immediate vicinity that her influence was most felt. For her it may be truly said that she was a devoted, loving mother and an ideal neighbor. Forgetful of self, she was happiest when doing for others, exhibiting in her life a deep Christian sympathy, and a genuine desire to promote the welfare and comfort of those around her, thereby displaying the sweet Christian graces which characterized her whole life.

The hearts of many friends and loved ones were saddened by the almost sudden departure of this good woman, but upon her bereaved children the blow falls with almost crushing force. To them the whole community pours out its tenderest sympathy in this hour of sore affliction may the God of all Comfort be theirs and may Sorrow's gloom be brightened with the assurance of a happy reunion "beyond the veil," where =
"With the morn those angel faces smile,
Which we have loved long since and lost awhile."
A Friend.

Notes for PETER WRIGHT:

Peter Wright Dies In Charlotte Hospital - Succumbs to Injuries Received When Struck by Truck on Highway 203 One Night Last Week - The death of Peter Wright, son of Mr. Sam J. Wright, of the Masons Cross section, in a Charlotte hospital Saturday adds another to the list of victims of automobile accidents in the county. Mr. Wright was fatally injured one night last week when struck by a motor truck on highway 203 near Smith's mill. The truck was driven by Mr. Fred Howell of Gibson. According to reports, Mr. Wright had stopped his car on the highway and was working on his motor. Mr. Howell was passing in his truck and as he drove past Mr. Wright's car, he stepped into the highway and was stuck on the head by the frame or body of the truck. The blow was sufficient to cause unconsciousness, it is said, and the young man died before regaining consciousness. From information gained about the circumstances, it seems that the accident was wholly unavoidable. It was at night and it was raining. Mr. Howell saw the car parked on the highway, but drove past it with sufficient clearance, it is said, not to create a dangerous situation. Mr. Wright on the other hand, it is believed, saw the truck coming, or passing, and thought that it was out of the way and stepped a little too far into the road with the result that the body of the truck struck his head. Funeral services were held Sunday morning at the Gibson cemetery, Rev. E. B. Fisher and Rev. O. W. McManus officiating.

Notes for ALFRED TIMMINS WRIGHT:

The Laurinburg Exchange - October 22, 1925 - McColl, Oct. 14 - Mad Man At McColl Kills Own Daughter - Was Mad Because She had Married Against His Wishes, Cuts His Own Throat. The second murder in 40 years life of this town occurred just after 12 o'clock on Tuesday, Oct. 13, when Alfred Wright, a mill operative living on the Old Hill shot and instantly killed his 14 year old daughter, Annie Mae, as she sat at the sewing machine, sewing. He then turned the gun on himself, but the shot went amiss. Going under the house, he slashed his throat. The police officers rushed him to the Strudwick emergency hospital where Drs. Moore, Blanchard, Livingston and Jennings attended to the wounds. He is yet at Strudwick hospital. A few days ago, Annie Mae was married (against her parents' wishes) to Ben Housard, of Conway; a youth of 20, the ceremony being performed at Dillon. Wright had the boy arrested, and Magistrate H. B. McIntyre tried the case, placing the boy under a $250 bond. The girl was taken to her parent's home. The horrible murder is the aftermath of this marriage. It is said amongst the neighbors that the girl had a very unhappy home; and carried a sad, unsmiling countenance. Doubtless, she followed her sweetheart, thinking to better her condition. The Old Hill was in a state of feverish excitement all yesterday afternoon; hundreds went to the home in which lay the murdered child; and several women were prostrated with nervous chills. Perhaps it was a good thing for the father that he was rushed to Strudwick; for nothing that has ever happened in this section has so maddened the crowd. This A. M., Wright, it is said told some one he "was not sorry - only wished he had killed out the crowd." To one of the physicians he suggested that he be "given enough strychnine to kill him." Later on he told some one he would like to see Annie Mae before she was buried. The bereaved mother says she "never wishes to see him again." Before her marriage to Wright, she was Miss Singleton, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. M. Z. Singleton; respected for their industry and honesty. Alfred Wright is the son of Walter Wright, who recently was sent to the insane asylum. The murdered girl will be buried near Mason's Cross, this afternoon.

THE MOTHER'S TESTIMONY - At the inquest held by Coroner T. F. McRae Tuesday the following evidence was taken: Maud Wright being duly sworn, says: On October 13, 1925, about one o'clock, I was in my house with my husband, Alfred Wright and my daughter, Annie Mae Housard. He asked me to go to my mother's and get him a quart of buttermilk. I left the house. I heard the gun fire, and my little girl came running, saying, "Papa has shot Annie Mae." I got in the house as soon as I could; found Annie Mae lying on the floor. She died in less than a minute. I did not see my husband. This trouble started on account of her marriage with Bennie Housard. He was opposed to the marriage. He was drinking at the time of the killing. She said also that Annie Mae said she could not sleep in day time for her father worrying her. Annie Mae worked in the mill at night. (Signed) Maud Wright.

Alfred was a barber as listed on his death certificate.

Notes for WILLIE JOHN WRIGHT:

Willie was a holiness preacher and was responsible for the conversion of his brother, Walter , and his nephew, Dewey.

As a young man, Willie "ran with James Gordon." They were chicken thieves, and once used a p istol to scare a farmer by the name of Cash, for which they went to prison. Willie was the m ean one: One time, Willie came upon a man he knew sitting on a bench in front of a store. T he man was whittling, and willie told him that was a nice knife he was using and asked to se e it. The man handed Willie the knife, and Willie "cut him up" with it.
