

Henderson Pinkney and Fannie (Cline) WHITE

First Generation

1. Henderson Pinkney (H.P.) WHITE was born about 1820 and died of "Chronic Pancreatic Condition" on 24 Jun 1862 in Hickory, Catawba, North Carolina. Henderson died at home between June 1862 and 1870 per oral family history and died of the fever and is buried in an unmarked grave in Rocky Mount Methodist Cemetery, formerly the Sherrill Plantation Cemetery. His widow, Fannie, applied for her widow's pension application, stating that Henderson contracted chronic Paced (pancreas) on 24 June 1862. His granddaughter remember that granddad died of the fever and never came home. A contradiction exists in the Catawba Co., NC cemetery book, which states that a P. H. White is buried next to Fannie.
