A GENEALOGICAL NIGHTMARE

Originally published in the "Newsletter of the Genealogy Society of Southern Illinois" Vol. 15 No. 6, March 1987. Elisabeth Pinkerton Leighty is the Editor of this newsletter and the address of the society is: Genealogy Soc. of Southern Illinois, c/o John A. Logan College, Carterville, IL 62918.

A new development is taking place that could be disastrous to genealogy. According to an article that appeared in "The Wall Street Journal" on Feb. 11, 1987, there is a trend not to use the father's surname as a family name as has been the custom for many centuries.

It is no longer unusual for children to be given the mother's family name as a surname or even a hyphenated surname by combining the surnames of the father and the mother. In recent years, some parents are bestowing on "their children the surname of their choice. For example, Pierce Barker and Carol Frost, gave their firstborn the last name of 'Roth-Tubman,' in honor of author Philip Roth and abolitionist Harriet Tubman; their second child, the name 'Smith-Cook,' after maternal and paternal ancestors; and their youngest, the name 'Woods,' after the child's maternal great-great-grandmother."

This is developing into a problem. State legislators are now worrying about the effect different surnames in one family will have on society, on family unity, and on record-keeping. Genealogists, too, have their worries if this trend becomes widely followed. How will this affect tracing family histories? Will the records that are kept be sufficient to document births, marriages, and deaths that occur in families?

It is encouraging to learn from the publication that some states such as North Carolina, Florida, Louisiana and New Hampshire have passed laws specifying that a child born in wedlock bear the father's surname and one born out of wedlock bear the mother's, unless paternity was established and both parents requested in writing that the father's name be used. Also, New Jersey moved quickly to enact regulations when a "Mr. Greenberg and his wife Ms. McBride wanted to name their baby 'Greenbride.'"

Other states have permitted allowing the mother's surname or a hyphenated surname. However, Nebraska ruled the father's name had to be the first of a hyphenated name.

"According to several state registrars, the fused surname is the most popular alternative to passing along a family name. One example is a Florida couple, Christine Ledbetter and her husband, Dean Skylar, who gained the right to name their son Sydney Anthony Skybetter and their second child, Rachel Amelia Skybetter."

What effect this new trend in naming children will have on society, on the family, and on genealogists remains to be seen many years from now. In the meantime, we hope that each family using surnames of their choice for their children will have the foresight to keep good family records.

ANOTHER "FAMILY ALBUM" SCAM!!!

Your editor's husband just received a card in the mail advertising THE CORNELL FAMILY ALBUM. It is the same type of book offered by Beatrice Bailey and others, however, this ad is very careful not to state that it is a book of the Cornell lineage. Instead, it describes the book as, "our informative edition of knowledge about the location of Cornell Families in America." This card was sent to my husband by "Elizabeth Cornell Ross." It is my understanding that others have received similar offers from such a person, but the middle name changes according to the Family Album being offered. Hopefully, everyone is now aware that such "Family Albums" only contain lists of current families bearing this surname and are not aids to genealogical research. -NJC.

DATA FROM WAR OF 1812 BOUNTY LAND WARRANT FILE OF
JAMES STRICKLAND OF NORTH CAROLINA

It is said that bounty land warrant application files generally hold less information of genealogical interest than do pension files. Unfortunately that is the situation in this case. JAMES STRICKLAND was born in the state of North Carolina. There was no indication when or more precisely where. He was 5'7" tall; with dark eyes, dark hair, dark complexion. He was a blacksmith by occupation. No names of relatives or acquaintances were indicated.

JAMES STRICKLAND (aka STRICKLING) was enlisted 8 July 1812 by Captain WILLIAM JONES to serve for a period of 5 years. He served as a private of Captain THOMAS C. HUNTER's company of the 8th Regiment of U.S. Infantry, under the command (subsequent to T.C. HUNTER's death?) of Captain JESSE ALLISON & Major D. APPLING, both of the 7th Regiment of U.S. Infantry. Having been reported unfit for service in consequence of chronic rheumatism, he was discharged at Fort Hawkins, Georgia, on 21 August 1815, with the commendation of his captain that he had "honourably & faithfully discharged his duty as a Soldier in the service of his Country".

On account of his service in the War of 1812, he was allowed 160 acres of bounty land on warrant #20339 under the Act of 1812. At that time he was identified on the records as JAMES STRICKLAND, alias STRICKLINE.

A letter in the file dated 12 June 1940 was written by A.D. HILLER, Executive Assistant to the Administrator (of the Veterans Administration?) to Mayor W. L. EDMONDS of Potosi, Missouri, in reply to the mayor's query seeking to ascertain the parents of WILSON STRICKLAND, and the identity of any JAMES STRICKLAND serving between 1800 and 1840. The letter stated, "A search of the records of the Veterans Administration has been made and no claim for pension or bounty land found based upon service of WILSON STRICKLAND cited above." The letter provided data regarding two JAMES STRICKLANDS, this one born in North Carolina and the one described in the following article.

This and the data in the article immediately following are from a copy of Bounty Land Warrant File 20339-160-12 of JAMES STRICKLAND, provided by the National Archives.

JAMES B. STRICKLAND (ca. 1795- )
WAR OF 1812 VETERAN FROM HALIFAX COUNTY, VIRGINIA

In the June 1940 letter from A. D. HILLER to W. L. EDMONDS, mentioned in the preceding article, there was a summary of data from file S.C.10429 of a second JAMES STRICKLAND, a JAMES B. STRICKLAND (aka STRICLING).

This JAMES B. STRICKLAND volunteered near Brooklyn, Halifax County, Virginia (date not indicated). His name on the military roll was STRICLING. He served as a private in Captain SAMUEL CARTER's company of riflemen in the 7th Regiment of Virginia Militia, commanded by Colonel DAVID SAUNDERS. He was discharged on 22 February 1815 after six months service.

He married LUCRECIA TANNER in Halifax County, Virginia in 1815. No other reference regarding their family was made.

He applied on 7 November 1850 for bounty land due under the Act of 28 September 1850, on account of his service in the War of 1812. He was then still a resident of Halifax County, Virginia. His age at the time was 55 years. The date and place of birth and names of his parents were not given. He was allowed 80 acres of bounty land on warrant #30489, and an additional 80 acres of bounty land under the Act of 3 March 1855 on warrant #11042. JAMES was allowed a pension of $8.00 per month from 14 Feb. 1871 under certificate #10429 issued 5 January 1872 based on his application executed 24 April 1871. He resided then at Brooklyn, Halifax County, Virginia.

ADDITIONAL DATA REGARDING WAR OF 1812 VETERAN
JAMES B. STRICKLAND (1795- ) OF HALIFAX COUNTY, VIRGINIA

The following data is that found in the just obtained War of 1812 pension file S.C. 10,429 of JAMES B. STRICKLAND, that is additional to that already noted in the previous article.

JAMES B. STRICKLAND (aka STRICLING) volunteered at Brooklyn, Halifax County, Virginia, on or about 20 August 1814 for a term of six months. He was honorably discharged at Fort Norfolk, Virginia, on 22 February 1815. The 27 November 1871 report from the Treasury Department's Third Auditor's Office to the Commissioner of Pensions stated that the rolls of Captain SAMUEL CARTER's Company of Virginia Militia showed that JAMES STRICLING served from 13 August 1814 to 4 March 1815.

The following is a copy of his signature as it appeared on his 22 March 1855 declaration for the purpose of obtaining additional bounty land under the act of 3 March 1855, which declaration was signed and acknowledged in the presence of JAMES STRANGE and WILLIAM M. IRBY, Jr., residents of Halifax County, Virginia:

Signature of JAMES B. STRICKLAND

ELISHA BARKSDALE, Jr., and B.L. SHELTON testified as to the loyalty of JAMES B. STRICKLAND, date and place not stated. The names H.E. BARKSDALE and J.B. STOVALL, both of Meadsville, Virginia, appear among miscellaneous notes on the cover of the file.

FORT NORFOLK, FEBRUARY 22, 1815.

This is to Certify, That James Stricling
a Private - in my company of Riflemen, of the 7th Regiment, Virginia Militia, commanded by Lieut. Col. DAVID SAUNDERS, in the service of the United States, at Norfolk, having performed his tour of Six months, as a good and faithful Soldier, is hereby honorably discharged.

SAMUEL CARTER, Captain
7th Regiment, Va. Militia

MILITARY RECORD OF SETH STRICKLAND
WAR OF 1812 SOLDIER IN TENNESSEE

Submitted by Robert C. Stricklin

SETH STRICKLAND (also known as SETH STRICKLIN) served as a private in an infantry company designated variously as Captain ALEXANDER HILL's Company or Captain JOHN CUNNINGHAMS's Company, in the 1st Regiment (WILLIAM METCALFE's) of the West Tennessee Militia under the command of General WILLIAM CARROLL.

SETH appears on the company muster roll on 13 November 1814, when he enlisted and was mustered into service, to 13 May 1815 at Nashville, when his tour of duty ended. (see page 70) One muster roll card shows him present at Camp Hynes on 18 November 1814, five days after his enlistment (possibly indicating Camp Hynes was in or near Warren Co.).

This is the same company that JOHN STRICKLIN (ca.1790-1867), later of Holt County, Missouri, joined on the same date. In his bounty land warrant application, JOHN STRICKLIN stated that he volunteered for the company in Warren County, Tennessee ("at Stone's River" per his widow CATHARINE's pension file W.C. 24,618). He also stated therein that Captain ALEXANDER HILL had been promoted to major, at which time Captain JOHN CUNNINGHAM took command of the company. On the 1850 census of Montgomery County, Missouri, JOHN appears at age 59 as head of household #608 with his wife CATHARINE (Hunsucker) STRICKLIN, both born in North Carolina, with a 20 year old SETH the third eldest son listed.

This was the same regiment (METCALFE's), but not the same company, in which Sergeant SAMUEL STRICKLIN, later of Maury County, Tennessee, had served.

As a matter of coincidence, both a SETH STRICKLAND and a SAUNDERS AUSTIN appeared together on the Warren County, Tennessee 1812 Tax List returned by ALEXANDER HILL, Esq. (see Ansearchin' News. ;092, p. 110). Revolutionary War veteran STEPHEN AUSTIN resided in the home of SAUNDERS AUSTIN in Hardin County, Tennessee in 1840 adjacent to WILLIAM STRICKLIN. (Several other names closely associated with Hardin County area STRICKLINS also appeared on that tax list, including MILLICAN, RICHARDSON, TIDWELL, HARRISON, DEAN, MARTIN and WARD.)

[Editor's Note: Oakland Cemetery is the oldest cemetery within the city boundary lines in 1864. All Confederate soldiers buried here died in one of the hospitals in Atlanta. Since Atlanta was the railroad center of the south, wounded and sick soldiers were brought to Atlanta hospitals from battlegrounds to the north. No soldiers were buried in the Confederate section prior to 1862 and none after 1864. A few were removed after the war and reinterred in other cemeteries. -NJC.]

WAR OF 1812 PENSION FILE DATA CONCERNING
HENRY STRICKLAND (ca.1792-1845) & WIFE ASENATH L. ALEXANDER (ca.1795- )
OF PENDLETON DISTRICT, SOUTH CAROLINA & BIBB COUNTY, ALABAMA

HENRY STRICKLAND and ASENATH L. ALEXANDER were married 5 January 1813 in Pendleton District, South Carolina, by SAMUEL HOUSTON, J.P. This was the first and only marriage for each of them.

HENRY was drafted on or about 1 February 1814 for six months service as a private in Captain JACOB REED's Company of AUSTIN's regiment of the South Carolina militia. In an 1878 widow's declaration it was stated that he served only 45 days because of the coming of peace.

ASENATH declared on 22 May 1872, at age 77, that she had one child when HENRY left home to go into the army. Her post office address at the time of this pension application was Woodstock, a town in Bibb County close to the Tuscaloosa County line. G.W. WALLACE and JAMES DOWDLE witnessed her mark on the application.

HENRY died in Bibb County, Alabama on 11 August 1845, per his widow's 1855 bounty land application. (Her 2 May 1878 declaration stated 14 August 1844. The 14 December 1872 statement of JAMES H. GREEN, who was present at HENRY's death, and who helped make the coffin and bury him, indicated he died between the first and tenth days of August 1845.)

ROBERT W. WOODS of Bibb County, Alabama, stated in a 14 April 1856 affidavit that he was present at the wedding of HENRY and ASENATH, and that HENRY died in Bibb County in 1845.

On 26 April 1856, ASENATH, at age 62 and a resident of Bibb County, made declaration for purpose of obtaining bounty land under the act of 3 March 1855. Her mark was witnessed by ELISHA McMATH and JOHN SALMONS. Her bounty land application was numbered 248,569.

JAMES DOWDLE deposed on 22 May 1872 in Tuscaloosa County that he had been acquainted with HENRY and ASENATH for 40 years, and knew them in South Carolina. The same deposition was also signed by G.W. WALLACE, declaring that he along with JAMES DOWDLE had examined the bible records regarding their marriage.

Another affidavit of ASENATH, undated but appearing to match the handwriting of one of December 1872, showed her post office address as Woodstock, Tuscaloosa County (actually in Bibb). This was witnessed by R.E. HARRIS and G.W. WALLACE.

On 3 December 1872, SAMUEL N. HOUSTON, aged 72, personally appeared in Tuscaloosa County, deposing that he lived in Pendleton District, South Carolina, one mile from the place HENRY and ASENATH were married in 1813, and that he knew them to have lived as man and wife from that date until HENRY's death in Bibb County in 1845.

In another declaration dated 3 December 1872, JAMES H. GREEN, age 66, a resident of Tuscaloosa County, declared that he was personally acquainted with HENRY STRICKLAND in his lifetime and his wife ASENATH, and had known them to live together from 1822 to 1845 when HENRY died.

The U.S. Department of the Interior pension office transmitted land warrant number 113,246 for 160 acres to ASENATH on 7 January 1873 for HENRY's service in the War of 1812, under the act of 3 March 1855.

On 2 May 1878, when ASENATH was aged 84 and a resident of Tuscaloosa County (but with post office address as Woodstock, Bibb County), she made declaration that HENRY was age 22 when he was drafted, his occupation was mechanic, he was about 5½ feet in height, with black hair, blue eyes, and fair complexion. This pension application was witnessed by DRURY PRUETT, aged 60, and JAMES HILL, age 72, residents of Bibb County, each of whom had known her for 40 years.

On 2 October 1878 DRURY PRUETT of Bibb County and JAMES H. HILL of Tuscaloosa County made declaration as to ASENATH being the widow of HENRY STRICKLAND, in support of her application for pension under the act of 9 March 1878.

The above data was extracted from a copy of National Archives combined files W.C. 11,093 and B.L. Wt. 113,246-160-55 in the name of HENRY STRICKLAND.

Dear Friends,

I would very much appreciate it if you can give me any information on the Strick - land Families. I have seen the name spelled Stricklin and have found this to be just another way in which some family members spelled the name.

My mother's name before her marriage was BALMA STRICKLAND. She was born May 3, 1882. Her mother's name before her marriage was ELIZABETH MORRIS. The family lived in Morrisville at the time and the community was named for their family. My mother's father was HENRY JACKSON STRICKLAND. My grandmother died when my mother was a very small child, 2 years old. Her father married again later and there were 2 children born to him by this wife, so my mother had a half-sister and a half-brother. I believe they both may be deceased, yet I am not sure. I am anxious to add other information of her relatives to my notes. Most of them passed away while I was very small, so I do not know all about them.

My Mother and Father passed away in 1946 and I failed to ask all the things I wanted to know. I have found a very small amount of information on them and would be very happy if you could help me in any way by telling me where to search.

Sincerely,
Mrs. Sarah N. Stedham

STRICKLAND            Mrs. AGNES D. BEDIENT, 838 Murray Street, Wichita, KS 67212: I would COOK                   like to learn more about JOEL STRICKLAND. In the 1850 census of BEDIENT                Amboy Township, Lee Co., Illinois is listed:

STRICKLAND, Joel B., 47, m, SC
"                    , Nicenund, 49, f, SC
"                    , John R., 21, m, SC
"                    , Emily M., 17, f, SC
"                    , Limca E., 14, m, SC
"                    , Nelson F., 10, m, SC
"                    , Dallas F., 5, m, SC

Later, daughter Emily married Joel COOK, probably in Lee County. I believe they were the parents of only 2 daughters. One of them, Kate Ola Cook, married Fred B. Bedient of Amboy. I have the drop leaf table that belonged to either Joel Cook's parents or to Joel Strickland's. Kate said that she had been told that when she was very young, she was at her grandparents. She held onto the edge of the table trying to see the food as they were being seated for dinner. Over it went, food and all. That table was our only wooden table we had for nearly 40 years.

EDITOR'S LETTER:

I apologize (again!) for being so late in getting an issue prepared. This year has been filled with numerous problems and each one delayed me even more. My biggest deterrent was learning the company my husband has been employed by for 20-plus years closed its doors last November. Rather than search for similar employment, we decided to open our own business. It has taken many months to get everything organized, but, in May, we will open our own graphic arts studio - GraphicSouth. Though my time will be limited, hopefully, something can be worked out so all of Volume 8 can be printed and mailed within 1987.

Since I was not certain anyone has been indexing this volume and since I simply did not have time to contact individuals, we do not have an index for Volume 7. If some kind soul will volunteer to index all 4 issues and type it so that it can be printed (contact me first), I will be glad to print it separately.

Strickland Scene means quite alot to me and I will continue as your editor for as long as you can put up with my inconsistency. As soon as our business is a little more established, I hope I can get on a better schedule. In the meantime, I thank you for your patience.

Nancy Cornell, Editor
